Are you working towards a degree in Addiction Counseling and committed to working with underseved populations?

NMFP-AC

NAADAC Minority Fellowship Program for Addiction Counselors (NMFP-AC)

UP TO $15,000

TUITION STIPEND AVAILABLE FOR MASTER'S DEGREE STUDENTS IN ADDICTION COUNSELING

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY?

If selected for the NAADAC Minority Fellowship Program for Addiction Counselors, you will:

- Be granted up to $15,000 Tuition Stipend.
- Receive training, professional development opportunities, and mentoring from working professionals in the field.
- Become part of the prestigious SAMHSA - funded Minority Fellowship Program.
- Help reduce health disparities and improve healthcare outcomes of minority & LGBT populations and transition age youth (ages 16-25).

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE 2017-2018 ACADEMIC YEAR!

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

1. Be a U.S. citizen or Legal Permanent Resident.
2. Be a graduate student enrolled in a Master's degree program at an accredited institution, and be entering the final year of that program during the Fall of 2017.
3. Be enrolled in either an Addiction Counseling Master's degree program, or a Master's degree program in Counseling with an addiction track, consisting of no less than 12 academic credits of addiction-specific content. The degree program must include a supervised clinical internship.
4. Commit to providing at least six months post-fellowship addiction counseling to underserved populations defined as minority populations, LGBT populations, and/or transition age youth (ages 16-25).
5. Attend a Fellowship orientation, complete six educational webinars, and work with an NMFP-AC-provided mentor.
6. Submit a complete application that includes all the required documentation.
7. Not have been previously notified of ineligibility by NMFP-AC.

Rolling Admissions

For more information and to apply, please visit:
www.naadac.org/nmfp-ac

Questions?
Email acrawford@naadac.org or call 703.741.7686 x 107

NAADAC
NAADAC.ORG
THE ASSOCIATION FOR ADDICTION PROFESSIONALS
44 Canal Plaza, Ste 301 Alexandria, VA 22314

Are you committed to working in the addiction field with underserved populations?

NMFP-BHP

NAADAC MINORITY FELLOWSHIP FOR BEHAVIORAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

UP TO $15,000

TUITION STIPEND AVAILABLE FOR MASTER'S DEGREE STUDENTS IN SOCIAL WORK OR MARRIAGE & FAMILY COUNSELING WITH A FOCUS IN ADDICTION

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY?

If selected for the NAADAC Minority Fellowship Program for Behavioral Healh Professionals, you will:

- Be granted up to $15,000 Tuition Stipend.
- Receive training, professional development opportunities, and mentoring from working professionals in the field.
- Become part of the prestigious SAMHSA - funded Minority Fellowship Program.
- Help reduce health disparities and improve healthcare outcomes of minority & LGBT populations and transition age youth (ages 16-25).

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE 2017-2018 ACADEMIC YEAR!

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

1. Be a U.S. citizen or Legal Permanent Resident.
2. Be a graduate student enrolled in a Master's degree program at an accredited institution, and be entering the final year of that program during the Fall of 2017.
3. Be enrolled in a behavioral health Master's degree program (social work or marriage & family counseling/therapy) that includes an addiction concentration consisting of no fewer than 12 academic credits of addiction-specific content, and a supervised clinical internship.
4. Commit to providing at least six months post-fellowship addiction counseling to underserved populations defined as minority populations, LGBT populations, and/or transition age youth (ages 16-25).
5. Attend a Fellowship orientation, complete six educational webinars, and work with an NMFP-BHP-provided mentor.
6. Submit a complete application that includes all the required documentation.
7. Not have been previously notified of ineligibility by NMFP-BHP.

Rolling Admissions

For more information and to apply, please visit:

www.naadac.org/nmfp-bhp

Questions?

Email acrawford@naadac.org or call 703.741.7686 x 107

44 Canal Plaza, Ste 301 Alexandria, VA 22314