

Human Trafficking - Modern Day Slavery

Presented by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
Detroit Alumnae Chapter

A Screening of the acclaimed 90 minute documentary

Survivor: Living Above the Noise

Followed by a conversation with the film's subject, writer/
producer and survivor

Brook Bello

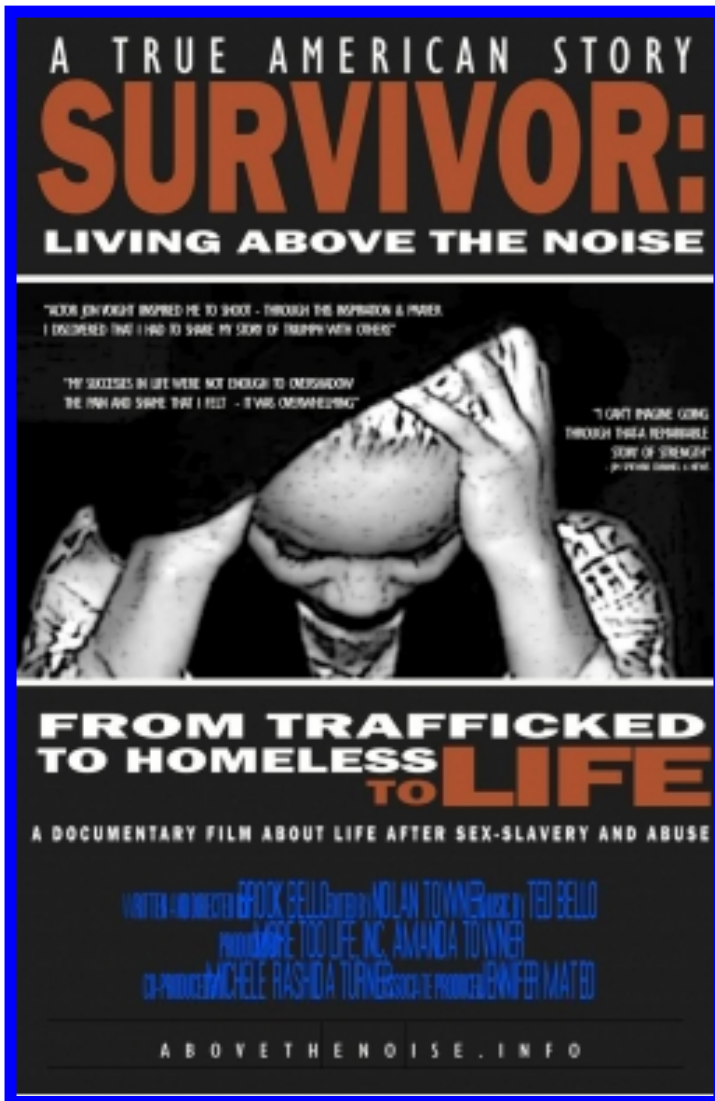

- and a panel of experts.

Tuesday, May 14

5:30-9:00 p.m.

DMC Children's Hospital Auditorium

3901 Beaubien, Detroit, MI 48201

Modern day slavery, with its exploitation of vulnerable youth, is sensitive subject matter that every pre-teen, teen and adult needs to be aware of – especially in this, the internet age.

This event has been approved by the Michigan Social Work Continuing Education Collaborative for 2.0 CE Contact Clock Hours. Course approval number is # MICEC-0058.

Beverly A. Gray, DAC President

Social Action & Event Chair: Marcia L. Hannah | Social Action Co-chair: Jennetta Clark
May Week Chair: Larmender A. Davis | May Week Co-chair: Doris Rodgers McKinney

Sponsoring partners:

