Invitation to a

CONCENTRATION/CURRICULUM DAY

Saturday, Jan. 23, 2016
8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Wayne State University, Student Center Ballroom
5221 Gullen Mall, Detroit MI 48202
(See www.campusmap.wayne.edu for driving directions and parking information)

Who should attend:
• All senior B.S.W. students who are applying for admission or have been admitted to the M.S.W. program
• First-year full-time M.S.W. students preparing for the advanced year curriculum
• Second-year part-time M.S.W. students preparing for the advanced year curriculum
• All prospective students interested in the Wayne State University M.S.W. program and who want to learn more about the advanced year concentrations and curriculum

Purpose: To explain the Wayne State University School of Social Work’s curriculum for the advanced year of the M.S.W. program so that students may choose a field of practice in which to concentrate their graduate studies.

Faculty and students will describe and discuss the Interpersonal Practice (IP) Concentration and the Innovation in Community, Policy, and Leadership (I-CPL) Concentration.

Within the IP Concentration, the following three Practice Theory Tracks will be discussed: Cognitive/Behavioral, Family Systems, and Psychodynamic.

Within the I-CPL Concentration, the following three platforms will be discussed: Leadership, Community Building/Development and policy.
