

Social Justice: Advocacy, Action, Activism

Developing A Social Work Response to Racism, Hate Crimes, and Police Use of Force

In response to the recent events in cities such as Ferguson, Charleston, and New York City, the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Michigan Chapter and Wayne State University School of Social Work have partnered to initiate a call to action for social workers to help examine personal biases and to eliminate racism and institutional barriers. The first in a series of three events will be held at Wayne State University:

Thursday, October 22, 2015

3:30 to 5:30 pm

WSU Undergraduate Library - Bernath Auditorium

Viewing of Congressman Ron Dellums interview video followed by breakout discussion group sessions

This FREE event is open to the public, students, alumni, faculty and staff. All attendees qualify for 2 FREE CE's. No pre-registration is required. RSVP's are requested but not required at events.wayne.edu. For more information contact Lauree Emery at ce\_ssw@wayne.edu or visit events.wayne.edu. The Undergraduate Library is at 5155 Gullen Mall, Detroit, MI 48202.
