All students in the School are provided with the opportunity to organize in their own interest through the University and School of Social Work. For more information on student organizations, please contact the Office of Admissions and Student Services at (313)-577-4409 or visit the Dean of Students Office. Organizations listed below are open to all students.

Association of Black Social Workers (ABSW)
Educational, research and community service activities with a focus on students of color.
Contact Lester Kern at fy5836@wayne.edu
Advisor: Norma Schropshire

Auntie Na’s Harvesting Unity
Auntie Na’s House is a place that offers a wide range of services and opportunities for self expression/education for community members.
Contact Dustin Feinberg at ee1475@wayne.edu

Coalition for Community Social Work (CCSW)
Enhance education and practice skills while engaging in various community building, rebuilding and revitalization efforts.
Contact Dominique Schroeder at eb0272@wayne.edu or Caleb Claudio at ej5469@wayne.edu
Advisor: Judith Wineman

Diabetes Education Wellness (DEW) Clinic
Interdisciplinary student run clinic with the purpose to educate and empower patients with diabetes to have more autonomy in the management of their disease.
Contact Stephanie Yan Xuan at fs4444@wayne.edu
Advisor: Takisha LaShore
International Social Work Organization (ISWO)
Unites social work students from diverse backgrounds and strives to raise awareness about social issues facing the global community.
Contact Hannah Rachel Varughese at el9835@wayne.edu
Advisor: Durrenda Onolemhemhen and Sarah Doyle

Jewish Social Work Student Association (JSWSA)
Promoting professional development and networking opportunities
With a focus on students members of the Jewish community.
Contact Lauren Cohn at Lauren.cohn@wayne.edu
Advisor: Judith Wineman

Just Speak Inc.
Chapter of the Detroit-based non-profit child sexual abuse advocacy with a focus on intervention/prevention of child sexual abuse with dedicated to survivors.
Contact Tori Leaphart at justspeakwsu@gmail.com

Mental Health Matters Association (MHMA)
Increase awareness and reduce stigma regarding mental health through trainings, networking and community engagement.
Contact Aubrey Gilliland at fz8503@wayne.edu
Advisor: A. Gonzalez-Prendes

Phi Alpha National Honor Society of Social Workers
National organization that supports high standards in SW education. Open to all BSW's & MSW’s that qualify and apply for membership.
Contact President: Dena Schwartz at fl7571@wayne.edu
Advisor: Shantalea Johns

Sexual Orientation & Gender Identity in SW (SOGI-SW)
Supports the social, academic and advocacy concerns of students of all sexual orientations and gender identities.
Inactive
Advisor: Kim Jaffee

Student Fitness & Wellness Organization (SFWO)
Advocates for the importance of health, wellness and fitness among social work students, faculty and staff.
Contact Andrea Vallelunga at eh2862@wayne.edu
Advisor: Julie Alter-Kay