

WAYNE STATE
School of Social Work

RSVP

- Space is limited
- RSVP for this free event and reception by April 13 at events.wayne.edu

MARYANN MAHAFFEY LEGACY CAMPAIGN

Gifts from this event will support initiatives that memorialize the impact Mahaffey made in Detroit and at Wayne State, including a memorial garden and community projects, such as ADA compliant/all-play recreational equipment playground for Detroit children.

LEARN MORE

[socialwork.wayne.edu/
alumni/maryannmahaffey](https://socialwork.wayne.edu/alumni/maryannmahaffey)

This program is brought to you in part by the Maryann Mahaffey Annual Lectureship Fund, Walter P. Reuther Library and supported by funds from the Edith Harris Lecture Endowment.

Rage, Love and Revolution: We are the leaders we have been waiting for! An event to commemorate the legacy of social worker and social justice champion, Maryann Mahaffey.

This exclusive April 15th event will feature a community conversation with Michelle Alexander and Amanda Alexander that will be facilitated by Detroit artist and Director of Detroit Future Schools, Nathaniel Mullen.

Michelle Alexander, JD is the highly acclaimed civil rights lawyer, advocate, legal scholar and author of The New Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness — the bestselling book that helped to transform the national debate on racial and criminal justice in the United States.

Amanda Alexander, JD, PhD is the founding Executive Director of the Detroit Justice Center and a racial justice lawyer who works alongside community-based movements to end mass incarceration and build thriving and inclusive cities.

The Maryann Mahaffey Legacy Event

APRIL 15, 2020

4 - 7 PM

WSU Law School, Spencer M. Partrich Auditorium
471 West Palmer Detroit, MI 48202

