

30th Annual EDITH HARRIS ENDOWED MEMORIAL LECTURE

Thursday, November 9, 2017

1 to 3 pm

Wayne State University
Community Arts Auditorium

The Wayne State University School of Social Work and Office of Continuing Education and Professional Development are proud to welcome

Vicki Johnson-Lawrence, M.S., Ph.D.

Project Director, Flint ReCAST

Visiting Assistant Research Professor

Department of Public Health and Health Sciences

University of Michigan - Flint

Presenting

Supporting Resiliency and Well-Being Through Stress and Adversity: Building a Path Forward From the Flint Water Crisis.

Johnson-Lawrence is a social epidemiologist that uses community-based approaches to address determinants and prevention practices to promote health equity. This lecture will focus on health stressors and mental health consequences resulting from the Flint water crisis.

Interested in having your students attend the lecture for class credit? We can track attendance for you! Simply contact Lauree Emery at ab7097@wayne.edu with your student roster and we will send you the attendance record after the lecture!

This FREE event is open to students, alumni, faculty, staff, and the public and has been approved by the MI Social Work Continuing Education Collaborative for 2 CE contract hours at a cost of $10 under CE Approval #: MICEC-0058.

No pre-registration is required. The Community Arts building is located at 450 Reuther Mall, Detroit MI 48202.

For more information contact Lauree Emery at ab7097@wayne.edu or 313-577-9348.