

2018 FALL ORIENTATION

Friday, August 24, 2018 - WSU General Lectures

Registration: 9:00 – 9:30 a.m.

Resource Fair: 9:00 – 10:00 a.m.

- High Program
- Campus Health
- Financial Aid
- Student Disability Services
- Academic Success Center
- Counseling and Psychological Services
- Writing Zone
- Career Services
- Student Organizations
- Computing & Information Technology
- National Association of Social Workers
- University Libraries
- Online Presenters
- SMART Learning Communities/Research Options
- Office of Military and Veterans Academic Excellence
- School of Social Work Apparel
- Office of International Student and Scholars
- Transportation
- Fitness Center
- SSW Certificate/Dual Title/Joint Program

Welcome Opening: 10:00 – 10:30 a.m.

Presiding: Christina Dennis, Director of Office of Admissions and Student Services
 Welcome: Sheryl Kubiak, Dean
 Greetings: Program Coordinators
 Introductions: Program Advisors

Professionalism Development Skit and Discussion: 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Led by Joy Ernst, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

Overview of Professional Writing Standards: 11:30 – 11:45 a.m.

Vanessa Gualtieri, School of Social Work Writing Tutor

Introduction of Faculty, Staff and Student Orgs: 11:45 – 12:00 p.m.

Lunch: 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Curriculum Overview: 1:00 – 2:30 p.m.

M.S.W Curriculum and Licensing
General Lectures

B.S.W. Curriculum
 Main Campus Students - 0091 Manoogian Hall
 Schoolcraft Students - 150 Manoogian Hall
 Macomb Students - 154 Manoogian Hall
 WOW! Students -160 Manoogian Hall (Computer Lab)

WSU Safety Workshop: 2:45 – 3:30 p.m.

Lt. David Scott, Wayne State University Police Department

NASW Kick OFF Speaker: 3:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Duane Breijak, National Association of Social Workers

Campus Walking tour and One Card Pick up or Group Advising Session: 4:00 – 4:45 p.m.

ONLINE ORIENTATION SESSIONS

The online portion of the orientation has been conveniently made available to you via your CANVAS and must be completed before Friday, August 24, 2018. To access your CANVAS please visit <https://canvas.wayne.edu/>

Once you have logged into CANVAS, click on the “Orientation” organization tab. Once logged in to Canvas and this course, you will be on the homepage with a short introduction from your advisor. On the bottom, click the “get started” button. In preparation for the in-person orientation, please view and complete the following required online modules:

The required orientation modules include:

- Writing Seminar: Vanessa Gualtieri, Writing Tutor
- Orientation to Libraries: Monique Oldfield, Librarian II
- Field Education: Takisha LaShore, Assistant to the Director of Field Education
- Professional Development: Joy Ernst, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

These sessions also include “reviews” that must be completed prior to the orientation in person before Friday, August 24 2018. Presenters will be available during that orientation to answer any further questions regarding the content covered. Announcements will be sent from CANVAS and will remain online to be revisited at your leisure. I recommend that if you are not familiar with how to navigate Canvas, please visit the Orientation to Using Canvas Module first.

Students are required to read the information within the modules and complete the “reviews”.
Completing the reviews serves as confirmation of fulfilling the online portion of the orientation.