SOCIAL WORK & PUBLIC POLICY TOWN HALL

Wondering how you can impact some of the issues you've been hearing about in the news? Wondering how social workers can participate in shaping public policy?

NASW-MI Region 11, in partnership with the Information Center and Wayne State University, are hosting a Social Work and Public Policy Town Hall. NASW-Michigan's Policy Director and Vice President of Social Policy will provide an overview of the legislative activities of NASW-Michigan, social work's role and ethical mandate in public policy, and how social workers can get involved in policy issues.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify ethical foundation (principles and standards) of social workers' engaging in the public policy development process.
- Provide an overview and understanding of the many areas where public policy affects our lives and those of our clients.
- Provide an understanding of the compelling reasons for being involved in the public policy development process, and the many opportunities to get involved.
- Identify multiple ways social workers can impact public policy.

Parking: Parking Structure 6 or metered parking is available in front and around State Hall.

1.5 CEs are available.
