

Daily

Open Education Week Exhibit in the UGL Atrium

For Everyone

Featuring the Resolution supporting the adoption of Open Educational Resources in courses at Wayne State University, ratified by the WSU Student Senate and presented to the university community on November 15, 2018. Learn about open educational resources, faculty who use them and how reducing course material and textbook costs can positively impact student success.

#OEWeek

For Everyone

Follow WSU Libraries on social media to read the open textbook reviews authored by WSU faculty.

Tues March 5

Open Educational Resources: How They Support Student Success

12:30 - 1:30 PM, FAB #1339

For Faculty

A recent study found that 85% of students said paying for textbooks and course materials is financially stressful. Open Educational Resources, or OER, are free and openly licensed educational materials that can be used for teaching and learning. Learn more about OER, quality factors, open licenses, availability, and how adopting OER can improve affordability and impact student retention and success.

Veronica Bielat, student success librarian and instruction services coordinator in the University Library System; Nathan Chavez, associate director for academic applications, Computing and Information Technology; and Erik Nordberg, assistant dean, University Libraries

Wed March 6

Open Textbook Publishing Workshop: How to Create Free Textbooks!

11:00 AM - 12:30 PM, 150 Teaching Commons, Lunch provided, RSVP by March 4

For Faculty, Staff & Graduate Students

This workshop provides an overview of considerations authors should attend to when creating their own open textbooks for use in their or others' classrooms. Workshop facilitators with experience in open publishing will lead a discussion on what kinds of texts and digital objects are published in open textbook publishing, what copyright issues there are to consider, where to publish, and how peer review is conducted. Read more & RSVP: <https://tinyurl.com/y2rqzwwuq>

Facilitated by Cheryl E. Ball and Joshua Neds-Fox, Wayne State University Libraries Digital Publishing group

Tell Your Story: How Have Textbook Costs Impacted You?

12:30 - 1:30 PM, 6:30 - 7:30 PM, UGL Atrium

For Students

We will be capturing student stories about impact of the cost of textbooks and course materials. Students can learn about the Student Senate resolution support in the adoption of Open Educational Resources in the exhibit display.

Hosted by Student Senate

Thurs March 7

What is OER Commons? Webinar

12:30 - 1:30 PM

For Faculty

How to become part of the OER Community, and search and share open educational content in the OER Commons. Join the Zoom Meeting: <https://zoom.us/j/282069583>

Nathan Chavez, Associate Director for Academic Applications, Computing and Information Technology

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

Open Education Week events are brought to you by the WSU Open Team members from the University Libraries, OTL and C&IT: Academic, Core & Intelligence Applications and the WSU Student Senate