

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN STARTING A BUSINESS OR VENTURE WITH A SOCIAL IMPACT?

2022

SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP CONFERENCE

Social Entrepreneurship in Action: Advancing Food and Environmental Justice through Social Innovation and Enterprise

WAYNE STATE
School of Social Work

COST

FREE - students
$45.00 - non-students
$75.00 - licensed social workers
seeking 4.5 CEUs

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This conference is for persons who are interested in starting or growing a business, nonprofit, or community-based project with social impact. Attendees will learn about social enterprise and social innovation across sectors.

CAMPUS REGULATIONS

This event will comply with all campus regulations. Learn more at wayne.edu/coronavirus

QUESTIONS

Contact Marijo Upshaw at mjupshaw@wayne.edu

DECEMBER

02

2022

9 AM - 4 PM EST
WSU MIKE ILITCH
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
2771 WOODWARD AVENUE
DETROIT, MI 48201

KEYNOTE BY SHAKARA TYLER, PHD

Building Food Sovereignty Through Cultural Collectivity and Community Ownership

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Attendees can select from morning and afternoon workshops that highlight social innovation in the food space OR more general business development workshops including legal entity formation, business planning, funding, and more.

SPACE LIMITED - REGISTER NOW

Learn more & register at go.wayne.edu/enviro-justice

