

FACULTY TALKS

ENGAGING COMMUNITY MEMBERS IN RESEARCH

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20TH | 12:30 TO 1:30 | ZOOM

Presented by University Researchers: Shantalea Johns, Ed.D, LMSW, and Megan Hicks, PhD

Community Partner: Ronald Lee Jr., Director of Program Strategy And Innovation at The Yunion Inc.

This session aims to equip early career faculty members with practical strategies and techniques for effectively engaging community members in their research. By the end of the session, faculty will understand the importance of community involvement, how to identify potential community partners in Detroit, and ways to foster meaningful and sustainable collaborations. Faculty will also hear from a community partner, who will discuss their experience collaborating with university researchers.

Hosted by The Black Faculty and Staff Association
