

JAMES & JANICE PROCHASKA ANNUAL LECTURE SERIES

Wayne State University
CLAS Department of Psychology
School of Social Work

Getting Wrecked:

Reflections on the 50th Year of the U.S. "War on Drugs",
Mass Incarceration and Harm Reduction

Thursday, November 18, 2021

2:00 - 3:30 pm EST on wayne.edu/live

Keynote speaker Kimberly Sue, MD, PhD will discuss the relationship between mass incarceration and the U.S. "War on Drugs" declared by Nixon 50 years ago, how we as a society can improve the care of people who use drugs while avoiding incarceration, and posits harm reduction as a philosophy and practice as a potential strategy to address rising opioid overdose deaths in the United States.

Sue is a physician-anthropologist, author, and the Medical Director of the Harm Reduction Coalition, a national advocacy and capacity-building organization that promotes the health and dignity of individuals and communities impacted by drug use and the racialized War on Drugs.

SPONSOR

This series is made possible by a generous gift from James O. Prochaska, Ph.D. and Janice M. Prochaska, Ph.D. to highlight topics related to Psychology, Social Work and the overlap between the two disciplines. James and Janice have combined their expertise in Psychology and Social Work respectively to help individuals improve their lives by making healthier choices.
