PERFORMANCE CRITERIA:
The outcomes for field education in the senior year are:

1. to learn a variety of interventive methods and techniques for use with individuals, families, small groups and for service delivery and change in organizations, neighborhoods and communities, and
2. to articulate a framework or frameworks for the differential use of these interventive methods and techniques with at least two social systems levels (individual, family, small groups, organization, neighborhood, community).

Students are introduced to a knowledge, values and conceptual framework in order to increase their ability and ease in working with and on behalf of clients. Students focus on:

- analysis, planning
- differential use of interventive strategies and techniques
- skill development
- problem-solving
- competency in social work practice

These performance outcomes are directly supported by the content in the junior and senior year courses in social work practice methods and field seminars, and the content and sequencing of courses in human behavior and the social environment, social welfare policy and services and in research for social workers.

The optimal senior year assignment combines opportunities to work with individuals, families, small groups, and organizations and communities, with projects planning, designing or coordinating a service, visiting other agencies and observing and participating in agency staff meetings and board meetings.
