• Twenty-five full-time and approximately 50 part-time faculty members dedicated to research, teaching and community engagement.
• Center for Social Work Research supports faculty in their research and is a state-of-the-art hub linking practice and research.
• Faculty submitted proposals valued at over $7 million and achieved a 65% funding success rate in 2013. Contract and grants include:
  • Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, exploring factors associated with intimate partner violence among teen
  • Michigan Department of Human Services to help give youth transitioning out of foster care support to thrive in their studies at Wayne State
  • Depart of Defense’s Telemedicine & Advanced Technology research Center, using motivational enhancement among returning veterans
• Faculty Research and Expertise Clusters
  • Child Welfare
  • Gerontology
  • Interpersonal Violence
  • Health and Behavioral Health (Mental Health)
• The Office of Continuing Education and Professional Development is a premier provider of affordable continuing education in the Detroit metropolitan area. Over the past academic year, 550 participated in CE events with 15 upcoming fall programs planned with numerous partnerships formed.
• One of most active and engaged alumni boards on campus with 9534 alums living and working across the United States and 148 living and working internationally.
• Enhanced program options including certificates and dual-title programs, coupled with support programs such as learning communities, tutoring and mentoring for optimal success.

Visit us at www.socialwork.wayne.edu to learn more!