

ARE YOU A SOCIAL WORK ENTREPRENEUR? Build your business with Build Institute!

Have you ever thought of starting a business that addresses a social problem or provides an unmet need in the community? Then you might be a social work entrepreneur. Would you like help understanding how you might turn your idea into a social venture? Then join us for a business and entrepreneurship planning course developed especially for social workers.

Build Social Work: Thursdays from 6PM-9PM

Classes will be held March 7 - May 2

Wayne State University Campus

WAYNE STATE
School of Social Work

For questions contact Shantalea Johns at the School of Social Work at (313) 577-4463
Register online at buildinstitute.org