

School of Social Work Student Organizations 2014-2015

All students in the School are provided with the opportunity to organize in their own interest through the University and School of Social Work. For more information on student organizations, please contact the Office of Admissions and Student Services at (313)-577-4409 or visit the Dean of Students Office at (<http://www.doso.wayne.edu/>). Organizations listed below are open to all students. See contact for further information and meeting times.

Student Organization

The umbrella organization for all School of Social Work students which provides student leadership to other organizations and serves as a place for students to voice ideas and concerns.

Coalition for Community Social Work (CCSW)

This group seeks to enhance the education and practice skills of its members while engaging in various community building, rebuilding and revitalization efforts. Contact Monica Bester, es1579@wayne.edu

CyberMentors

Addresses the issue of cyberbullying among youth, while encouraging responsible use of technology, online civility and cyber responsibility.

Contact Melissa Stumpo, ci8482@wayne.edu

Greater Detroit Association of Black Social Workers

Student Chapter which involves itself in educational, research and community service activities with a focus on assisting African American students in making the adjustment to the School of Social Work. Contact

Gwendolyn Crawford, bo1859@wayne.edu

International Social Work Organization (ISWO)

Through engaging, educational events, and volunteer experiences, this organization unites social work students from diverse backgrounds and strives to raise awareness about social issues facing the global community.

Contact Mary Teresa Hickey, fl2826@wayne.edu

Jewish Social Work Student Association (JSWSA)

Promoting professional development and networking opportunities in conjunction with Hillel of Metro Detroit, which is an organization for Jewish college students and young adults who live in the metro Detroit area. Contact Abigail Liepshutz, fh0855@wayne.edu

Phi Alpha National Honor Society of Social Workers

Nationally recognized organization that supports high standards in social work education. Open to all BSW's & MSW's that qualify and apply for membership with a focus on scholastic achievement and community service. Contact Shantalea Johns, Academic Services Officer II/ Academic Advisor, shantalea@wayne.edu.

Sexual Orientation & Gender Identity in SW (SOGI-SW)

Supports the social, academic and advocacy concerns of students of all sexual orientations and gender identities (with a specific focus on the LGBTQ community). Contact Danielle Hicks, fh0829@wayne.edu or

Amy Harrison, eh4353@wayne.edu.

Student Fitness & Wellness Organization (SFWO)

Advocates for the importance of health, wellness and fitness among social work students, faculty and staff. Contact Melinda Zeiter, ei7261@wayne.edu.